

Latinos on Fast Track

Self-enrichment opportunities, scholarships and more...

Social Marketing for Health in the Latino Community course

by The Latin American Cancer Research Coalition (LACRC)

Where: Georgetown University McDonough School of Business, May 18 – May 22, 2009.

This workshop is designed to provide both introductory and advanced training in applying the latest in social marketing concepts and tools from around the world. While emphasis will be on fundamentals of social marketing, there will be particular attention to Latino target audiences.

To register, please download the Summer School Application Form from:

<http://summerschool.georgetown.edu/applications.html> and fax the completed application to: (202) 784-4386 ATTN: Claire Selsky by April 15, 2009. If you are interested in receiving a scholarship for the course, please e-mail your application, resume and a 500-word max. essay discussing your interest in the course and how you plan to use this new information in your work, to Claire Selsky at cfs25@georgetown.edu by April 15, 2009. A limited number of scholarships are available (for audit only).

New England Latino Student Leadership Conference

When: April 3 and 4

What: Eastern Connecticut State University is pleased to be hosting this year's New England Latino Student Leadership Conference NASPA Region 1.

The purpose of the conference is to initiate and encourage connections between Latino student college leaders within the New England region.

<http://latinoleadershipconference.org/page.php?page=about>

White House Internship Program

When: May 22 to August 14

Summer 2009 Internship submission deadline is March 22, 2009.

Interested applicants must be:

- US Citizens

- Eighteen years of age on or before the first day of the internship.
- Enrolled in a college or university (2-4 year institution) or must have graduated from college in the past two years.

More information on the White House Internship Program, including application instructions, can be found at:

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/about/internships>

2009 Through The Looking Glass Scholarship

Deadline: Monday March 16, 2009

Scholarships specifically for high school seniors and college students who have parents with disabilities can be found at:

<http://lookingglass.org/scholarships/index.php>

AGM Diversity Fellowship Program

Associated Grant Makers of Boston, MA

When: Full-time program beginning in July 2009 and running through August 2010

Deadline: Thursday, March 12, 2009

This program is intended to provide a comprehensive training program to people of color interested in pursuing a career in the field of Philanthropy. The application and additional information can be accessed on the Associated Grant Makers website at <http://www.agmconnect.org>.

Finalists must be available for a full day of interviewing in Boston on Thursday, April 30, 2009.

Eligibility:

- * Applicants must currently reside in the United States
- * Hold at minimum a Bachelor's Degree
- * Satisfy Federal Laws regarding employment eligibility verification

Those with further questions should send an email to Tammy Dowley-Blackman:

diversity@agmconnect.org.